

PRESCOTT COLLEGE

PH.D. PROGRAM presents

CRITICAL PEDAGOGY AND REVOLUTIONARY PRAXIS IN THE AGE OF IMPERIALISM

PETER MCLAREN

PROFESSOR, GRADUATE SCHOOL OF EDUCATION, UCLA

TUESDAY, MAY 6, 2008

7 – 8:30 PM

PRESCOTT COLLEGE CROSSROADS CENTER
BEHIND 220 GROVE AVENUE (OFF ALLEY)

Professor McLaren will discuss critical pedagogy and revolutionary praxis, paying particular attention to the current crisis of capital and its globalized restructuring, the emergent authoritarian state and a racialized class system. He will explain the importance of developing a philosophy of praxis as a means of both explanatory critique (gaining historical knowledge of the social totality) and revolutionary action (opportunities for political intervention).

Questions? Contact Frank Cardamone at 350-3218

FOR THE LIBERAL ARTS, THE ENVIRONMENT, AND SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY