

UCSB presents,

Critical Pedagogy and Revolutionary Praxis in the Age of Imperialism

Peter McLaren, Professor

Graduate School of Education and Information Sciences, UCLA

Professor McLaren will discuss critical pedagogy and revolutionary praxis, paying particular attention to the current crisis of capital and its globalized restructuring, the emerging authoritarian state and a racialized class system. He will explain the importance of developing a philosophy of praxis as a means of both explanatory critique (gaining historical knowledge of the social totality) and revolutionary action (opportunities for political intervention).

Monday

June 9th, 2008

2:00 – 4:00 p.m.

McCune Conference Rm

HSSB 6020

For more information contact:

Richard P. Duran, duran@education.ucsb.edu or (805) 893-3555

Sponsored by: Gevirtz Graduate School of Education, Center for New Racial Studies, Chicano Studies Institute, Department of Sociology, Latin American and Iberian Studies Program, and Office of Academic Preparation.