

4 Basic Functions

4 Core Facilities

Server: receive data from attached device, confirm the check-in information; receive and process data from mobile app and terminals, manage reservation

On-site Terminal: used as an interface for user to query or make or change their reservation at the gym.

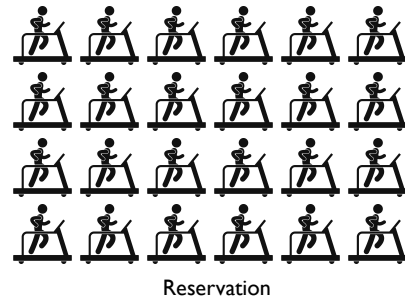

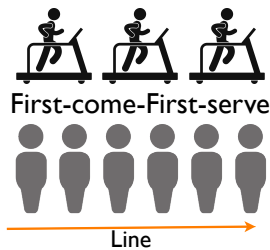

Mobile App: used as an interface for user to make and manage their reservation; receive data from server on availability of equipment; send reservation request to server.

Attached Device: allow user access of the equipment via either swipe card or input ID number; send and receive information from the server.

2 Equipment Groups

1 Guarantee

to have available equipment for you.

