I don't normally write reviews but I just had to share! Now I've had a lot of doormats but I was attracted to this one because it's customizable. I just love knowing my neighbor will smile when she reaches my door and sees "Hello Janis!" scrolling across the mat.

What I've been surprised AND thrilled by is how it's made me feel closer to my son Scotty. Before I would leave notes for him under the mat and pray that he got home safely. Now not only does the app alert me when he gets home, but I can rest easy knowing Mr. Forgetful has a spare key securely stored inside the mat if he needs it. And talk about quality construction! I've been a proud owner for a year and I've only had to recharge the battery once! All it needs is a quick hose down once and awhile and a creative mind for messaging. And call me crazy, but I've even put a sensor on my cat so I know when she's ready to join the family for dinner.
