"It is hard to believe that this is the first book on this major American filmmaker who not only directed documentary masterpieces but also had a huge impact on several generations of American film.

This long overdue collection is wonderfully absorbing." THOMAS WAUGH, AUTHOR OF *HARD TO FIND AND THE FRUIT MACHINE

Innovative documentary filmmaker; friend of Andy Warhol, John Cage, Jasper Johns, Robert Rauschenberg, and other leading figures of the New York art world; radical leftist critic of the Establishment; and legendary bon vivant: Emile de Antonio (1919–1989) was a larger-than-life personality and a key figure in the development of postwar American cinema. A decade after his death, his cinematic legacy remains unparalleled in American documentary film, ranging from the brilliantly edited compilation of the 1954 Army-McCarthy hearings that helped construct Senator Joseph McCarthy's reputation as a rogue demagogue (Point of Order) to a meditative juxtaposition of documents about FBI director J. Edgar Hoover and intimate footage drawn from the filmmaker's own life (Mr. Hoover and I).

This first full-length volume devoted to de Antonio collects interviews with and writings by him; reviews and other critical material that detail the genesis, production history, and reception of his films; a comprehensive filmography; and an in-depth biographical essay. Offering a long overdue assessment of de Antonio's career, this indispensable book also makes a significant contribution to our understanding of American independent cinema at its most politically engaged.

Douglas Kellner is George F. Kneller Chair in the Philosophy of Education at UCLA and author of numerous books, including Media Culture. He is Emile de Antonio's literary executor.

Dan Streible is assistant professor of film studies and art history at the University of South Carolina.

Haskell Wexler is an Academy Award-winning cinematographer who collaborated with Emile de Antonio on the documentary Underground.
